A VISIT TO CHASE CITY

The Splendid Mecklenburg Was Visited Yesterday.

WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE

Rallroad Men, Physicians, and Others from Richmond and Elsewhere Made Welcome-Luncheon and Speeches

"The Mecklenburg," the new, all-theyear-round hotel, pleasure resort and sanitarium at Chase City, in Mecklenburg county, Va., was the scene of a very pleasant occasion yesterday, when about a hundred physicians and surgeons, railroad and newspaper men from Richmond and other Virginia and North Carolina oities and town gathered there to partake of the hospitality of the Jefferson-Mecklenburg management and inspect the magnificent property, which has been built up on the suburban hills of the county, close by Healing Springs, fain their locality and destined to gain renown throughout the world when some of their astonishing oures become better known.

The excursion was under the direction of Mr. P. M. Fry, manager of the Jefferson and the Mecklenburg. The party left by special train from the Scuthern depot at 10 A. M., arrived at the Mecklenburg at 12:30, started back at 4:30 and arrived in Richmond again at 7:30 P. M. This allowed plenty of time for a comarrived in Richmond again at 7:30 P. M. This allowed plenty of time for a complete inspection of the handsome hotel, with its home-like and yet thoroughly up-to-date appointments, its broad verandas and halls, reception and pleasure rooms, to try its elevator service, its telephone, telegraph, postal and other facilities of communication, drink of the spring waters (notably the rare chloride of calcium and lithia), look at the Baruch system of baths, and last, but most enthusiastic feature of all at the moor calcium and man, took at the most enthusiastic feature of all at the moment, to partake of one of the most agreeable luncheons ever served.

At the conclusion of this refreshment Dr. George Ross was called for, and in his usual happy manner he acquitted himself of a pat and witty expression of the appreciation of the assembled guests for the princely hospitality of their hosts. Dr. Ross then called upon one of the brethren from North Carolina, Dr. B. F. Hayes, of Oxford, who refused to allow the old North State to be preceded by any other than Virginia in appreciation of courtesy. Dr. Hayes asked to hear the sentiments of Dr. J. Allison Hodgos, of Richmond, and Dr. Hodgos spoke eloquently, to the frequent applause of his hearers.

Dr. J. C. Walton closed the speech-making with a few happy remarks, after which he road a letter from Dr. Simon Barusch, of New York, who was expected to be present but who was detained New York. The letter was very interesting to the medical fraternity, in that it explained the value and success of the Barusch system of baths in use at this sanitarium.

Well-Known Young Couples United.
Pretty Ceremonles.

Mr. John H. Cottrell and Mrs. Bessie V. Harper were married Wednesday, April 14th, at noon, at the parsonage by Rev. J. O.3 Babcock, or the Methodist Church, After the ceremony, the couple were driven to the bride's home. No. 367 North Twenty-sixth Street, where dinner was served. Those participating were relatives of the couple, and a few intimate friends. Later Mr. and Mrs. Cottrell left for Erin Shade Postofflee, Henrico county, their future home.

One of the prettiest weddings occurred at Christ Episcopal Church last night, that has been in the East End for some ilme, when Mr. Henry A. White led to the altar Miss Roberta Henderson. At 8 aclock the wedding march, rendered by Mr. Bernard Burton, announced the entrance of the bridal party. The bride wore white organdy, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Katie Henderson, in white organdy, over pink, carrying pink carnations. They entered the church by the main alsie, preceded by the ushers, Messrs. William Hudson, Robert Acree, James T. Gary and Mr. Soloman, and were met at the altar by the groom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. Frank Gary, who entered from the vestry room. Rev. G. Otts Meade performed the caremony. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Kate Henderson, of Ligon's Hill. Mr. White is a popular young man. He is an employe of the Locomotive Works.

Mr. and Mrs. White left on the Chesapeake and Ohlo train for Washington and other cities for a bridal tour.

The Committee on Health met at 8 o'clock and approved the pay-rolls and bills of the department.

The citairman of the Subcommittee on Stables reported that five nules had been purchased from the Richmond Bazaar stables for the street cleaning department. Of this number two were found to be unsatisfactory after trial, and were ordered to be returned, but the proprietor of the stables refused to take them back. The mules, said the chairman, were now at the stables of the department, being cared for.

It was dedded by the committee to give the mules a further trial, and the bill of the Richmond Bazaar was passed by for future consideration. The price paid for the mules was $200 each.

The Committee on Cemeteries met in the City Hall yesterday at 5 P. M. and audited the pay-roll of the city cemeteries and adopted a motion requesting the Committee on Streets to repair the road-bed of Oakwood Avenue near P Street.

A resolution prohibiting any stock to be kept within the cematery grounds except such as may be owned by the keepers who reside at the cemeteries was adopted and the meeting then adjourned.

MR. SIMMERMAN TALKS Says He is Opposed to Any Tax on Minerals.

Mr. S. S. Simmerman, of Wythe, who offered the substitute for the tonnage tax bill, making the amount 30 cents on the $100 of value instead of $1, said last night that he was opposed to any tax whatever, and had only offered the substitute in the hope of breaking the force of the original bill. He thought the tax now upon the mineral lands was sufficient, and hoped the bill and the substitute would both be dismissed.

Up to a late hour last night no agreement had been reached between the opposing forces. Minerals.

Fact That He Left the Door Ajar the Only Thing That Saved His Life.

a narrow escape from death by asphyxiation at the Randolph, a boarding-house on West Fayette Street, this morning. Mr. Updike arrived here yesterday, and did not retire until 2 o'clock this morning, which fact, the doctors believe, is the only thing that saved his life.

When he went to bed he claims he turned off the gas, but in some manner it must have been turned too far. As was his custom, he left the bedroom door slightly ajar.

At 8:20 o'clock this morning Harris Simmons, brother of the proprietor of the house, noticing that gas was escaping, went to Mr. Updike's room, He found the gas turned on and Mr. Updike in bed unconscious. He summoned Dr. Henry J. Hinkel, who, after an hour's hard work, pronounced Mr. Updike out of danger.

MAGNATES HOLD MEETING

Session at Newport News Yesterday, During Which the Details of the Coming Ball Season Were Arranged.

Virginia Four-City Base-Ball League, held yesterday at the Grand Central Hotel, Newport News, it was unanimously deelded to drop Manchester from the assoclation, the franchise being transferred to Norfolk, which city will come up with a team of its own. This news will be received with surprise and sorrow by many Manchesterlans but it was deem best by all parties concerned, the re-presentatives of the village over the river concurring in the opinion of the other

THOSE PRESENT.

When the meeting was called to order by President V. Donati, of Richmond, there were present W. B. Bradley, of Manchester; E. N. Gregory, secretary of the association, also of Manchester; E. W. Milstead, City Sorgeant of Newport News, vice-president and backer of the shippard city team; A. D. Clement, Newport News; E. W. Denny, of Newport News.

Before taking up any matteer, President Donati stated that he represented Petersburg by proxy, having consulted with the managers the night previous. He then annoenced that negotiations were underway with prominent business men of Norfolk, in regard to coming into the loague. He endorsed the scheme, stating that he would be glad to transfer the franchise held by Manchester to Norfolk.

MEET NEXT WEEK.

MEET NEXT WIDEK.

The Newport News contingent was heartly in favor of the plan, and the Manchester delegation opined the same way, as a result of which Messrs. Mistead, chairman; Denny and Clement were appointed as a committee to take the matter up with the Norfolk gentlemen and report back to a special meeting, which will be held next week in Norfolk. Who are interested in the project are prominent and influential business men, who have already secured Lafayotte field and propose using these grounds for the season. Special arrangements have been made with the car companies and fast schedules will be inaugurated on the lines leading to the park. Owing to the probable change in the formation of the association, the schedule for the season was not made out, as was intended and had been announced, although the question was discussed at some length. It is safe to say that not over two games a week will be played in any city in the association, with a bare probability that Newport News and Petersburg will only get one each.

PERFECT HARMONY.

Harmony prevailed throughout the meeting, the representatives of the in-

Many matters of a private nature were brought up and fully discussed, the body deciding that no team shall bankrupt itself by excessive payment of salaries, although no stated figure was named. Umpires were talked of, but no final choices were made.

The directors of the association will meet next Thursday at Newport News. The visitors yesterday were well pleased with the treatment extended them by the magnates in that city, nothing being left undone to make their visit pleasant. There was to have been a game of baseball yesterday afternoon there between Newport News and the Artillery School team, and President Donatt was to umpire, but rain interfered and the contest was called off,

NEW YORK, April 16.-J. Overtor Paine and Arthur B. Paine, formerly carrying on business under the name of J. Overton Paine and Company, bankers and brokers, to-day assigned for the benefit brokers, to-day assigned for the bench of creditors.

J Overton Paine was examined in supplementary proceedings in the Supreme Court to-day to satisfy a judgment for $2.200. The order debarred him from disposing of his property. Waen the court disovered that he had made an assignment it adjudged him in contempt, and placed him in custody. Latter Mr. Paine gave bond and was released.

A statement was given out at the offices of the Paine Company, placing liabilities of all kinds at about $100,000 and assets $608,808. The cause of the failure is inability to collect amounts due or to realize on assets. Every just claim will, it is on assets. Every just claim will, it is said, be paid in full.
